

Mentoring Program Evaluation Framework

This evaluation framework should be used in conjunction with the “Mentor – Mentee Workplace Mentoring Surveys” document. The evaluations will measure three program outcomes: a) Mentoring Process Outcomes, b) Mentor/Mentee Experiences, and c) Workplace Outcomes.

The two evaluations provide a minimum of two check points mid-year progress and program completion.

- Mid-Year Evaluation: Administered during the mid-point of the program.
- Final Evaluation: Administered upon completion of the program.

Compare mid-term evaluation to final evaluations look for changes overtime. Use your organization’s performance indicators to measure impact of mentoring on retention, job satisfaction and organizational culture.
